The East Tennessee Telephone Company are painting all their telephone poles in the city a bright red with about ten feet of the bottom black. It adds greatly to their appearance.

The State Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky will have an Association tent at the State Guard Encampment at Owensboro August 7-23.

The peach crop of Madison county will be enormous this year. The largest grower, perhaps, is James Jones who has an orchard of 1,000 trees that will average three bushels to the tree. He estimates his crop to be worth $3,000.

The Cynthia Fair last week, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. Lodge of that city, was a grand success. Large crowds were in attendance every day, and the Parisians present report a most enjoyable time.

In Judge Smith's court Wednesday, Dan Love, Fielding Allen and Bud Warren were each held over to Circuit Court in the sum of $40 for selling the waters of Houston creek.

HARRY MCCARTHY, of Nicholasville, was elected President of the Kentucky Press Association at Madisonville. Mr. Thomas G. Watkins, of Louisville, was elected Vice President, and Mr. Robert E. Morningstar, of Bowling Green, was re-elected Secretary.

REFRIGERATORS and ice boxes at cost. WINK & LOWRY.

A POSTAL received from the editor of the NEWS, who is touring the West with the Kentucky Press Association, written at Pike's Peak, says it was halting and snowing. The party are all well, but several suffered from the high altitude. They are enjoying the trip immensely.

MR. E. H. HARRIS, book-keeper at the Dow-Hayden wholesale grocery house, has been elected teller of the Agricultural Bank to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. W. L. McClintock. His salary was fixed at $1,000. There were nine applicants for the position.

A CRAZY negro created considerable excitement at the L. & N. depot Wednesday. He imagined that he was a millionaire and wanted to buy the L. & N. road. He was arrested by Officer Bishop who, finding he belonged in Winchester, put him on the train and sent him home.

The trial of the negro, Luther Thornton, who was arrested on suspicion of being the one who attempted to rob Mrs. Joseph Kenney on last Saturday night as she was returning home, is set for this morning. It is said that Mrs. Kenney and her daughter while believing that he is the party, are not positive enough to swear to it on the witness stand.

For the past few days a gentleman on the Public Square has been auctioning from a carriage books by various authors and publishers covering everything from children's story books to encyclopedias. They are sold at prices that would not pay for the binding. Several persons have taken advantage of the opportunity to secure a fair library at a comparatively small cost.

MR. L. FRANK and son Bismarck left Monday for New York to purchase their fall stock of goods. They will be absent about two weeks, and will lay in a stock of goods superior to any ever brought to Paris. The Messrs. Frank have the reputation of being shrewd buyers as visit New York from the South, and their taste is evidenced by the thoroughly have on hand. They promise the ladies of Paris and Bourbon county who surprise when their fall stock begins to arrive.

BILLS are out announcing that the Rev. Peter Vinegar will preach at the Breckinridge Camp-meeting, which begins August 11th and continues one week. His subjects will be: "Watch That Snake;" "If We Run With The Footman and With Wolves;" "How Shall Ye Contend With Wolves?" "A Dawn Hot Day;" "Man is Never Satisfied;" "How Long Shall I Linger?" "Bel Is Too Short and Covering To Narrow;" "Hell Half Mile From Here." Special inducements will be made to get Rev. Vinegar to preach on "Thirteen Dead Men Coming Down the Lane."

MRS. MARY E. BLACKBURN, for several years a clerk in the Quartermaster General's office of the War Department, has resigned her position, in order to become the bride of Joseph C. S. Blackburn, United States Senator from Kentucky. She is now at Cape May, as the guest of the Senator and his daughter, Mrs. Hall, wife of Col. Wm. P. Hall, of the army. The date of the wedding is not announced, but is expected to take place sometime before the assembly of Congress next December. Mrs. Blackburn is the widow of the late Judge H. H. Blackburn, of Martinsburg, W. Va., a distant relation of the Kentucky Senator.

Clean Out Claysville.

The Gazette of last Monday contained an article which the News wishes to second in every particular. It was in regard to the disgraceful condition of things in the negro suburb of Claysville. It has gotten to be such a nuisance that the people of the upper part of town are seriously thinking of organizing a vigilance committee and cleaning the place out. It is impossible for people residing in six blocks of the place to leave anything out at night, for if they do it is a positive certainty that it will not be there the next morning. The wild revelings of the dissipated negroes all through the night make sleep impossible, and it resembles more a wild western mining town that a village in a civilized community. The News earnestly hopes the proper officials will take some action to clean out the pest hole.

You should see the beautiful samples of 10x30 portraits for $10, framed complete. Former price $30.

Prisoner Escapes.

On Tuesday evening while the county prisoners who had been out working were in the corridor of the jail preparatory to being locked up for the night, John Montague, a negro, made a break for liberty. He ran through the covered bridge leading to East Paris, and was followed by a posse of men while he was running, but failed to hit him and he got safely away. The next morning Mr. Kiser was awakened about four o'clock by Montague, who wished to be locked up again. He had become weary of his freedom, and as he had only a couple of weeks more to serve he decided to return and finish it out.

Margaret Ingels Announces For Enrolling Clerk.

A dispatch from Frankfort to last night's Lexington Leader says: "Miss Margaret Ingels, of Bourbon county, has announced her candidacy for Enrolling Clerk of the Kentucky House of Representatives, subject to the action of the Democratic party. She stamped the State for Bryan in 1896 and is an actress of considerable ability. She is now employed in the Census Bureau in Washington."

Rush and Batten Arrive.

The great race horses Rush and Batten arrived yesterday from the East. Batten was sold to Capt. S. S. Brown by Mr. Tom McDowell for $10,000, it being agreed that Mr. McDowell would have the horse after his racing career. Mr. McDowell sold rush to Hon. W. C. Whitney, for $7,500 some time ago. She will go to LaBelle, Lexington Herald.

Opening of the Grand.

The appearance of Herrmann the Great at the Grand on the 23d will be the opening of the season of 1901-1902. Herrmann will appear in a specially arranged program of magic, mirth, mystery and more magical sensations, including "The Escape From Sing Sing," "Noah's Ark, or After the Flood," "La Supplis de Lutece," "In the Catacombs," and many others. He will also present McWatters & Tyson and Company in their great New York success, "Scenes In a Dressing Room."

Mt. Sterling Fair.

The Street Fair Carnival and Midway to be held under the auspices of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the Red Men of Mt. Sterling, Ky., August 21, 22, 23 and 24, promises to be the greatest amusement enterprise ever inaugurated in Eastern Kentucky. The famous Rootstock-Perrin Midway Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., has been secured for the occasion, and free attractions are the best money can secure. Two grand parades on first and third days—Gov. J. C. W. Beckham leading the procession on the third day. Accommodations at reasonable rates can be secured at hotels and boarding houses. Write to N. A. Wilkerson, Secretary, for premium list.

Was Shy a Quarter.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Wednesday had the following notice: "William B. Harris and Louise Scroggins hall from Paris, Ky. Each is 21 years of age. They wanted to wed. Harris and his bride-to-be reached this city, and the former started out to get a marriage license yesterday morning, and visited the City Hall in the belief that it was the Court House. The document was finally secured, and with clasped hands they walked to Squire Templeton's Court."

"Harris is tall, while the girl is scarcely five feet in height. When she sat on a chair her feet did not touch the floor. The couple were united, and Harris gave his bride a resounding smack."

"When informed that the cost of the transaction was $2, Harris expressed surprise, as he had but $1.75, but finally Constable Lacey helped him out of the dilemma by lending him a quarter."

Harris is a colored boy who was formerly porter at Talbott Clay's shoe store. Louis Scroggins is the diminutive colored girl who was in the employ of Mrs. Nannie Brown.

Negro Burned At The Stake In Alabama.

With agonizing shrieks and eyes bulging from his head, John Wesley Pennington, a negro, was burned at the stake near Enterprise, Alabama, by five hundred citizens of Coffey county Wednesday morning. The mob was composed of whites and blacks.

Pennington committed a brutal assault upon Mrs. J. C. Davis, the wife of one of the most prominent farmers of Coffey county. He confessed his guilt. The crime was committed while Mrs. Davis was gathering vegetables in the garden. He choked the woman into insensibility and later led to the woods nearby. As soon as she regained her senses Mrs. Davis crawled to the house and told her husband. A large posse was quickly organized and with blood hounds they chased the negro until he was captured Wednesday morning when he was brought back to the Davis home for identification.

Mrs. Davis immediately recognized him and the negro broke down and wept. He admitted having committed the assault and pleaded for mercy, but with cries of terror, the trembling man was dragged from the house and into the woods.

There seems to be no settlement in sight, and while the cars are running, the company is undoubtedly suffering a financial loss. The big fair begins next Monday, and every effort will be made to effect some kind of an arrangement by then. Sympathizers of the strikers are wearing badges reading "I'll walk."

A NEW COAL YARD.—J. S. Wilson & Bro., the enterprising implement and seed men, have opened a coal yard on Second street, with office on Bank Row.

MATRIMONIAL.

BAIRD-WATSON.

At the Paris Memorial Methodist Church at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mr. W. Alexander Baird and Mrs. Corrie Watson were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Long before the hour appointed for the ceremony the beautiful church was packed to the doors. The altar was decorated with ferns and palms, which made a pretty background to the waving mass of flowers and feathers which decked the heads of the ladies of the audience.

The doors were thrown open and the bride party entered. It was led by the ushers, Messrs. R. Stamps Moore, Edward Tucker, Duncan Taylor, John Power and B. P. Dow, Jr. Mr. John Magee, of Dayton, Ky., a particular friend of the groom, was best man. Miss Webster of Louisville, niece of Mr. Baird, and Miss James, of Millersburg, niece of the bride, were two very sweet bridesmaids. Miss Helen Lavin and Miss Matilda James, as flower girls, immediately preceded the bride and groom. On arriving at the altar, Rev. Redd, presiding Elder of this District, in a very pretty and brief ceremony, pronounced the happy couple man and wife. The organ was presided over by Miss Fannie Rion, who very beautifully rendered the Wedding March from Lohengrin. The bride was very tastefully attired in a gown of white muslin de sole over white silk. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Baird took the 3:30 train on the L. & N. for Buffalo, New York. Atlantic City and other Eastern points. They will be absent about three weeks. The popularity of this excellent couple was attested by the presents received, which were numerous and costly.

Mrs. Watson is the daughter of Mr. Samuel James. In this city, and has for a number of years conducted a prosperous millinery establishment in Paris. Mr. Baird is a very popular traveling salesman for the Dow-Hayden Grocery Company, and is very popular among his many friends. The News joins in wishing them a long and happy voyage on the matrimonial sea.

At the depot before the train left the bride party was bombarded with rice. One enthusiastic friend of Mr. Baird emptied about a pint down his back.

"I'LL WALK"

On Badges Worn By the Lexington Sympathizers.

The strike of the employees of the Electric car company is rapidly developing into a sympathetic move in which every union laboring man in Lexington will be involved. Wednesday night a thousand and more persons, workingmen in all trades, held a mass meeting to indorse the strike. Speeches were delivered by Organizer Pratt and local men, and a boycott on the ice and electric lights was practically announced.

After the meeting crowds surrounded the Central Station of the Company and jeered and hooted at the new employees. The police force and County Sheriff's office were called and managed to hold the crowd in check. No violence was attempted in the center of the city. The strike leaders condemn the acts of violence. All day and until the cars went in for the night a patrolman was on every car.

There seems to be no settlement in sight, and while the cars are running, the company is undoubtedly suffering a financial loss. The big fair begins next Monday, and every effort will be made to effect some kind of an arrangement by then. Sympathizers of the strikers are wearing badges reading "I'll walk."

Kentucky Editorial Excursion.

The Kentucky editorial excursion reached Salt Lake City, 2,000 miles west of Louisville, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The journey from Colorado Springs, was over some of the most sublime scenery in the world. The trip over the narrow gauge track of the Denver and Rio Grande was a constant succession of beautiful and terrible scenes. The views from the train were the most sublime possible to conceive, showing plainly the process by which the world was created.

The people of Salt Lake treated the Kentuckians as royally as their brethren from Colorado. A Reception Committee met the party eighty miles out of the city and took them in charge. The party will leave Salt Lake City today, going to Denver and Cripple Creek before starting home. Every member is delighted with the great West.

If you want a dozen bottles of Jung's or Weideman's fine beers telephone Newton Current & Co., 106. We have dozen cases at $1, delivered anywhere in the city. We also have Jung's fine old lager on draught, and eight year old Elkhorn whisky at $4 per gallon, three year old Elkhorn at $3 per gallon, Old Mountain Brandy at $4 per gallon, Old Tom Gin $4 per gallon. Ginger Ale, Sarsaparilla, Orange Elder and all kinds of pop for picnics, etc. Free lunch every day.

One of the best equipped tonorial establishments in the State is that of Carl Crawford on Main street, adjoining the Bourbon Bank. It is the only barber shop in the city employing white barbers exclusively, and the best service is given at all times. A first class bath room in connection with the shop is greatly appreciated by its patrons. Everything possible is done for the convenience and comfort of the patrons.

You Do, or You Don't Need Glasses

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combatted. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in.

Our Dr. C. H. BOWEN having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best of work, having the latest improved methods of fitting.

Examinations free. Next visit Thursday, Aug. 23, 1901. A. J. WINTERS & CO. JEWELERS. Hello, 1703
